

Library Has Many Activities in July

The Scenic Regional Library in New Haven has a number of activities planned for July.

Library programs are free and open to everyone, according to Kate Haynes, branch manager.

Preschool Storytime, for kids up to kindergarten age, meets each Tuesday at 10 a.m.

"We will enjoy stories, songs and crafts about firefighters, community helpers and superheroes," Haynes said.

Kids Club for grades one through five meets every Tuesday in July at 11 a.m. July themes are superman, firefighters, Daniel Boone and tall tale American heroes.

Superhero Academy is scheduled for Friday, July 10, at 11 a.m. at Old New Haven School.

"Kids will learn amazing stage fighting techniques from pros," Haynes said. "Please stop by the library or call to register."

Read, Build and Play, the library's Lego club, will meet Saturday, July 18, at 10 a.m. Kids ages 4-12 are invited to listen to a story and build something fun.

Teens, grades six and up, are invited to create a superhero during Teen Time Tuesday, July 14, at 1 p.m.

Kids of all ages are invited to learn about Aussie culture, animals and music with Didgeridoo Down Under Tuesday, July 14, at 2 p.m.

World Bird Sanctuary will present All About Owls Saturday, July 25, at 11 a.m. The program will feature live birds. Everyone is invited. People may stop by the library or call to register.

Yarn and Yak will meet Tuesday, July 7, from 6 to 8 p.m. at the library.

"Bring your projects and share your ideas," Haynes said.

Basic Computer Operations, taught by Stacy Harris, is scheduled for Thursday, July 9, from 6:30-7:30 p.m. Instruction and hands-on practice are included. Space is limited, and registration is required.

Learn about Franklin County's Medal of Honor recipients with historian Steve Claggett Tuesday, July 14, at 6:30 p.m. at the Old New Haven School. Call to reserve a seat.

Book Club meets at the library Wednesday, July 22, at 5 p.m.

"We are reading 'Traveling with Pomegranates' by Sue Monk Kidd," Haynes said. "Stop by the library and borrow a copy of the book."
