

Burke Pacific Current News May 2013

AMELIA BEDELIA VISITS PACIFIC LIBRARY—

The popular children's book since the 1980s, Amelia Bedelia, that were written by Peggy Parish until her death in 1988 and now by her nephew Herman Parish since 1995 came to life inside the Scenic Regional Library, Pacific, on Sat., May 4. Amelia Bedelia is a maid in Cameroon who takes everything literally, which leads to many comical mishaps. Here the children, with the help of Amelia Bedelia learn to make hats.

Amelia Bedelia poses with special friends Rianne Boaz and Gracie Schwab. These young ladies first met two years ago right here at Pacific's Scenic Regional Library during story time and they just met up again today thanks to their friend, Amelia Bedelia.

Amelia Bedelia poses with special friends Rianne Boaz and Gracie Schwab. These young ladies first met two years ago right here at Pacific's Scenic Regional Library during story time and they just met up again today thanks to their friend, Amelia Bedelia.

Photos by Debby Kwiecien