

Library Presentation

Mark Houseman, Washington Historical Society Museum director, will be giving a presentation on the life of Bertha Gifford Wednesday, June 12, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the Pacific library. Gifford was a local criminal reknowned for killing between 3-17 victims over a course of 21 years through arsenic poisoning. Attendees will learn about Bertha's life and also participate in a question and answer session at the end of the presentation.
