

Register for Language Classes

Registration for Free English language acquisition classes was held at the Washington Career Center Tuesday, Aug. 11. The classes will be held at various locations in Franklin County and East Central College's service area. Scenic Regional Library purchased books and instructional materials for the program. Registering is Bhavna Patel, of Washington. With her, from left, are Alice Whalen, director of adult education and literacy at East Central College; Diane Schwab, YMCA literacy coordinator; Steve Campbell, Scenic Regional Library director; and Barbara Harrell, English language instructor at ECC. For more information on the classes, people may call ECC's adult education literacy program, 636-584-6533.
