Holocaust Presentation

A talk by Ben Fainder, Holocaust survivor and author of “Silent for Sixty Years,” will be held on Tuesday, Aug. 25, at 6 p.m. at the Union library. The presentation will be followed by a book signing of “Silent for Sixty Years.” People may reserve a spot by calling 636-583-3224.

Army, Coast Guard, Marines and Navy.

There will be three panels in the center wall of the memorial. The first will be dedicated to the disabled veterans, the center panel will be an American flag, and the third panel will be a tribute to prisoners of war. Below a disabled veterans emblem, the text will read:

“South memorial is dedicated to all veterans of the United States Armed Forces who sustained physical or emotional wounds and disabilities while defending the rights and freedom of all Americans. No words can truly express our unending gratitude. We salute you.”

Below the POW emblem, the text will read:

“This memorial is dedicated to the honor of our POWS/MLAs whose sacrifices have and will continue to impact all Americans for all times. Their wars are not over. We will always remember.”

Below the panels there will be emblems from several counties.

Man Reports Two Assaults On Same Day

A Union man reported two separate assaults occurring on the same day.

Police responded to the home of Daniel Cook, 20, at 6:22 p.m. Monday, Aug. 17, after a 31-year-old Union man kicked in a door and assaulted Cook.

According to Union police, the suspect broke into Cook's home and kicked him because Cook allegedly struck the suspect's son.

The suspect was arrested and later released. His name has not been released pending formal charges.

At 11:06 p.m. that same day, Cook allegedly was stabbed while in an alley between Springfield Avenue and Locust Street near his home.

Union police canvassed the area and were unable to locate any suspects or evidence of an assault.

According to police, Cook did not see the person who stabbed him, and his injury appeared to be superficial.
