

"If the signal is red, ..."

Digital Microfilm Training

Scenic Regional Library will host a training session to teach patrons how to use the new digital microfilm reader/printer.

With the new machine, researchers are able to enhance, email, print, and save to a flash drive images from the library's microfilm collection.

Training will begin at 2 p.m. Monday, June 3. People may call 636-583-3224 to register.