

New Library Equipment

Scenic Regional Library has installed digital microfilm reader-printers at both the Union and Warren County branches. The equipment was purchased with grant money through the Missouri State Library. The new readers have the ability to print an image from the microfilm and allows readers to save them to a USB flash drive or email them.

Nick Machalas, an account manager with Tipton Systems, demonstrates the new reader to Diane Disbro, Union branch manager.

Submitted Photo.