Master Magician To Entertain At Old New Haven School This Saturday, October 14

Scenic Regional Library is bringing Troy Roark, master entertainer, to the Old New Haven School on Saturday, October 14 at 1 p.m. The Old New Haven School is located at 810 Maupin St.

Roark's "Loud and Outrages" show is full of juggling, magic and a huge dose of humor. From his "Flaming Torches of Death" to his signature

"Ping Pong Ball Trick," he consistently leaves his audience laughing.

Troy began his career at the age of five, as an escape artist performing in his father's illusion show. Thirty-three years later, he has performed all over the world combining juggling, magic, music and comedy into one show.

He was honored by his peers when he was named

"Entertainer of the Year" by the International Brotherhood of Magicians. Troy has performed for hundreds of corporations and thousands of fairs and festivals all over the United States.

In 1998, Troy joined Elsenpeter Productions, which provides entertainment for the fairs, festivals and corporate events throughout the Midwest.
