

A Ghastly Tour

New Haven author Dan Terry leads a ghost hunt Thursday, Oct. 26, at the New Haven Scenic Regional Library Ghost Hunt. The library hosted more than 70 ghost hunters that visited the city's many historical locations to learn about paranormal history. Before the hunt, Terry gave a presentation on the town's haunted history.

Submitted Photo.

Christmas House Tour Is December 3

The New Haven Preservation Society 29th annual Christmas Candlelight House Tour will be held Sunday, Dec. 3, from 3-7 p.m.

The tour features four local homes decorated for the Christmas season.

Guests are invited to view an antique toy display and the new "The Journey Begins" Museum at the Old New Haven School, 810 Maupin St.

vation Society, established in 1988, is a not for profit organization which supports historic preservation in the New Haven community through educational activities. The organization maintains a museum and archive at its Maupin Street location.

Cookie Sale

United Methodist Women will host the 25th annual Christmas Cookie Sale

Talk on Indian Archaeology at Scenic Regional

New Haven Scenic Regional Library will host "The Indians and Archaeology of Missouri" Thursday, Nov. 16, at 6 p.m. at the Old New Haven School.

Educator and author Jim Duncan will talk about the American Indians of Missouri and the artifacts they left behind.

To reserve a spot call the library at 636-237-2189 or register online at scenicregional.org.