Library Reading Program Launches June 2

Following the opening of the Scenic Regional Library New Haven branch's new building, the staff will have a Rock of Pages Summer Reading Kick-off on Saturday, June 2, with a variety of activities taking place between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. While offering an opportunity for both children and adults to sign-up for the 2018 Summer Reading Program, attendees will be able to play games, listen to live music, enjoy refreshments, and explore the new 5,000-square foot facility. Games will include a library scavenger hunt and rock 'n roll bingo, with prizes going to the winners. The band Switch-back will play live rock music from the 1960s, Continued on 8A sponded and the two officers began chasing the suspect across a field.

He attempted to hide in the grass behind Dollar General before they spotted him and he ran behind Seitter's Market.

He reached a retention pond and climbed into a sewer drainage pipe, police said.

Creech ordered him to stop but he refused. She twice fired a taser at him, but he pulled out the electrodes and kept moving, apparently unaffected.

Terry arrived shortly and Terry called in Public Works Director Peter Otten due to his knowledge of the sewer system.

"He let us know every place he could possibly come out at," Terry said. "We had officers all around. The sheriff's department deployed tear-gas and that's what finally drove the guy out."

He added, "The fire department sent out a truck, they washed him down, and he was taken to the hospital and then the sheriff's office."

Attendees will also get to help make library history by helping fill a time capsule, which will be buried on the library grounds later in June. All activities are free and are family friendly.

"We're excited to be moving into such a nice facility," said Branch Manager Rachel Terbrock. "Please help the New Haven branch usher in this great new chapter in the library's history."
