

Union Library Hosting Events in January

The Union branch of the Scenic Regional Library has several events scheduled for January.

The library has events for kids, teens and adults for the first month of the new year.

Most events require pre-registration. To register for any program, call 636-583-3224, stop by the branch, or visit scenicregional.org.

Please register for adult programs.

Adult Programs

A seminar called "Could You Recognize Domestic Abuse?" will be Thursday, Jan. 3, at 6 p.m. Guests will learn how to spot the warning signs.

The Missouri's Forgotten Heroes event will be Thursday, Jan. 10, at 6 p.m. The session will focus on genuine heroes from Missouri. The event will be presented by local author Ross Malone.

Hooked on Books will meet Thursday, Jan. 17, at 6 p.m. This month the group will discuss "Furiously Happy."

Book Bingo is scheduled for Thursday, Jan. 24, at 11 a.m.

Computer Programs

Computer program events are for people 18 years of age or older. Space is limited so registration is required.

The first computer event of the new year is Take-a-Ticket Training. The event will be Wednesday, Jan. 9, from 2 to 6 p.m.

Guests will be able to get their technology questions answered during a 30-minute session.

An introduction to Microsoft PowerPoint class will be Thursday, Jan. 24, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. The class will include instruction and practice time on laptops.

Kids and Teen Programs

The Stories Matter: Winter Reading Program will continue in January. The event ends in February.

Stories Matter is for students in grades prekindergarten to third grade. Anyone interested should talk with library staff.

Creating Gargoyles for Kids will be Saturday, Jan. 12, from 1 to 3 p.m. Guests will learn about and make their own gargoyle.

Reading to Rover will be Thursday, Jan. 24, at 5 p.m. Visitors will be able to read to therapy dogs.

The Fuzzy Sock Hop will be Tuesday, Jan. 29, at 3:30 p.m. Guests are encouraged to wear fuzzy socks to the branch for a dance party.
