

bag Thursday night, Feb. 21, during the Power of the Purse Proceeds from the event go to Franklin County Area United ated $9,950 was raised. Missouriian Photo/Elizabeth Barmeier.

goal is to always leave something better than we found it.
"We want our Hometown Hospitality to be felt among our residents, families, visitors, and staff at all times," she added.
Yadav said St. Clair Nursing Center is participating in the project because it has been proudly serving the county for more than 30 years.
"Our facility has provided the highest quality of
• See Kite Page 2A

Family Into Accidental Advocates

Herbel's Testimony Was Thursday

his home in New Haven. He Missouri Department of Trans-poDOT) crew were cleaning a h now bears his name.
1/2 years and five 20th Junit judges to permanently revoke the license of the elderly driver who struck Ebker.

The death of Ebker has tossed his family into an unplanned crusade to keep other first responders, utility and highway workers safer while doing their jobs on the roads.

"I don't want to be sitting next to another daughter because her dad was killed by an impaired driver too," Herbel said. "I would rather sit next to her and her dad, knowing we did all we could to help keep him safe."
• See Advocates Page 2A

Jump Around

Children hop around like bunnies as children programmer Alesia Cullen sings a song Thursday, Feb. 21, during story time at the St. Clair Library. She also read books including "Help! The Wolf Is Coming" by Cedric Ramadier and Vincent Bourgeau, "Wolfie the Bunny" by Ame Dyckman and more.
Missourian Photo/Elizabeth Barmeier.

SATURDAY  Spot Storms High: 60° Low: 33°	SUNDAY  Sunny High: 48° Low: 19°	MONDAY  Partly Cloudy High: 44° Low: 28°	TUESDAY  Mostly Cloudy High: 55° Low: 37°	WEBSITE Stay Connected With Breaking News: e missourian.com 	To Subscribe Call 636-390-3029  8 56118 00401 6
---	---	---	--	---	--