Paper Quilling Event at Library Is February 26

The Union branch of the Scenic Regional Library is hosting Paper Quilling for Beginners Tuesday, Feb. 26, at 6 p.m.

Paper quilling is an art form that uses paper strips that are rolled, formed into shapes, and glued into decorative pieces. Guests will get to make a 3D piece of art to take home and display. This is a beginners class and is limited to 20 participants.

To register for this program, call 636-583-3224, stop by the branch, or visit scenicregional.org.
