

Quilting Event At Union Library This Thursday

Quilting Through Hard Times will be Thursday, March 21, at 6 p.m. at the Union branch of the Scenic Regional Library.

Hallye Bone's talk will feature a "trunk show" of 1920-30s Depression-era quilts, and explain how quilt makers during the Great Depression made something beautiful out of scraps. Bone also has experience traveling with the Smithsonian Institution's "crazy quilt" collection.

To register for any program, call 636-583-3224, stop by the branch, or visit scenicregional.org.
