

Scenic Regional Library Presents 'Music Of The Riverbanks'

Scenic Regional Library will present the first of its two bicentennial programs for 2019, Saturday March 23 at 1:30 p.m. "Music of the Riverbanks: Exploring Franklin County's Early Music" features New Haven historian and musician, Tom Meisenheimer. Sampling a number of songs dating from the early 19th century through those up to the 1930s, Meisenheimer's musical survey will feature primarily banjo music. Playing on replicas and antiques as well as some modern variations, Meisenheimer will bring to life the musical fingerprints of the earliest settlers of Franklin County and beyond. Registration is recommended but not required. To RSVP call or visit the library or go to scenicregional.org and click on Events. This is a free event open to all ages.

NEW HAVEN
BRANCH

1819

2019

Music

of the Riverbanks

Exploring Songs of Early Franklin County

Saturday, March 23, 1:30pm-3:00pm

Local musicians perform on period instruments, sharing a sample of early American songs/tunes. Learn some of the history behind this music and the instruments played.

RSVP today: Call 573-237-2189,
stop by the branch, or register online.

SCENIC REGIONAL LIBRARY - NEW HAVEN BRANCH | 200 DOUGLAS ST., NEW HAVEN, MO 63068 | 573.237.2189
LIKE US! GO TO FACEBOOK.COM/NEWHAVENLIBRARY | VISIT US AT SCENICREGIONAL.ORG

Sponsored By New Haven Independent News

American Legion To Host Senior Dance

American Legion Post 366, New Haven, will

New Haven Care Center Activities

March 13-19

Wed. - 8:30 a.m. One to One Visits; 10 a.m.

Fix N Dine: 2 p.m. UCC

Dominoes; 10:30 a.m.

Nails; 1:30 p.m. Trivia
with Fay.

Sun - 8:30 a.m.

March 13, 2019

Washington High School staff member Lydia Juengling won first place in the National Scholastic Press Association's Broadcast Feature Story of the Year contest. Juengling, a graduate of Washington High School, is currently a freshman studying architecture at the University of Kansas. Submitted Photo.

Library Will Celebrate Bicentennial With 'Music of Riverbanks'

Scenic Regional Library in New Haven will hold a free event to celebrate the early music of Franklin County.

"Music of the Riverbanks: Exploring Franklin County's Early Music" will be held Saturday, March 23, at 1:30 p.m.

Local musicians, including New Haven's own Tom Meisenheimer, will perform on period instruments, sharing a sample of early American songs from before, during and after the Civil War and some of the history behind the music and instruments.

Registration is encouraged. Call 537-237-2189 or visit scenicregional.org and click on the Events tab.

The New Haven library is located at 200 Douglas St., New Haven.

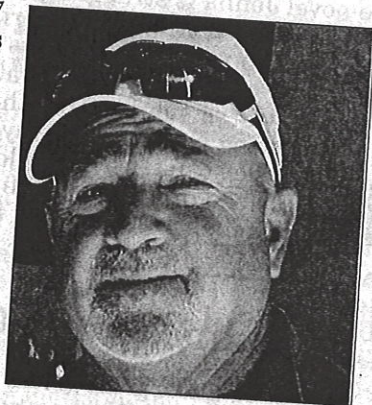

Suggestions of local people or stories to profile are always welcome at Senior LifeTimes. Call Karen at 636-390-3043 or email her at cernichk@emissourian.com.

... can be pruned back
... leaves before new above the ground now

in attempt to make it under the celebration at Our Lady of Lourdes gym with a carnival.

Missourian Photo.

Hold Book March 23

Bill Rogers

ministrators will always remind me of the great times I had in Union."

Rogers and his wife, Sandy, now live on Table Rock Lake in Reeds Spring after they both retired from careers in education.

ting them and what can be done to protect them.

The presentation is free,
but people are asked to register because space is limited.

Call 636-239-7652, ext.
318, or 636-485-4104.

'Music of Riverbanks'

"Music of the Riverbanks:
Exploring Franklin County's Early Music" will be held Saturday, March 23, at 1:30 p.m.
at Scenic Regional Library in New Haven. Local musicians will perform on period instruments, sharing a sample of early American songs from before, during and after the Civil War and some of the history behind the music and instruments. To register, call 537-237-2189.

WHS Reunion

The next monthly meeting to plan the Washington
High School Class of 1969 50-year reunion and the alumni reunion will be held this Wednesday, March 20,
at 6 p.m. at the Washington Public Library, Meeting Room A. For more information, contact Wade Swartz
at 314-517-4436 or motex-
co@charter.net or Donna Dieckman at 314-803-5494 or donnadd1951@gmail.com.