mission.

Members of the Warren County Commission directed questions to their attorney until they have a chance to review the judge's ruling. Attorney Ivan L. Schraeder could not be reached for comment as of press time.

Collector's attorney responds

Schaumberg also directed questions to her attorneys.

David Roland, one of those attorneys, explained that the commission's lawsuit essentially said Missouri law compels Schaumberg to comply with the commission's order. But Schaumberg argued that could prevail," Roland commented. "We're very disappointed it took a year's worth of litigation to get the court to come to this conclusion... but ultimately the judge got it right."

He added that there has been a trend among commissions in various counties "flexing their muscles" on
