

CERT Recruiter Shares Info

Jane Jud-Almstedt chats with Harvey Dubs, Boles Fire District chaplain, during the district's annual Safety Day at Boles Fire Station 3, held Saturday, April 27. Almstedt was there to offer information on the community emergency response team (C.E.R.T.) program that trains individual to help themselves or others in mass catastrophes when first responders have not been able to reach the site.

Library Adult Programs

Adult programs at the Scenic Regional Library in Pacific for the month of May include the regular mahjong games and monthly book club, as well as demonstrations in gardening and acrylic frame decorating.

All adult programs are free, but registration is required. Patrons can register by calling the branch at 636-257-2712 or going online to the events calendar at scenicregional.org.

Space is limited so people should reserve a spot as soon as possible.

Mahjong is played every Monday at 10 a.m. New players are always welcome.

The branch book club will meet Tuesday, May 14, at 6 p.m. This month's book is "The Heart's Invisible Fury" by John Boyne.

Debbie Brandt, master gardener, will teach and demonstrate container gardening techniques Thursday, May 23, at 6 p.m. Guests will learn how to turn their patio into a beautiful garden.

Guests can decorate an acrylic frame Thursday, May 30, at 6 p.m. People should bring a picture that can be cropped to 4-by-4 and embellish a frame to match it. There is a limit of 20 people for this program.
