Student speakers Katie Carter and Garrett Sommer delivered messages of hope and humor, reflecting on their educational experience and social memories.

Superintendent Dr. Gregg Klingensmith says the district watched the forecast closely and was determined that it could work around the window of rain on Saturday.

"We looked at the weather and thought we had two memorable graduation."

Had the event been moved inside, many spectators would have missed out on witnessing the graduation of a loved one.

"We knew that if we had it in the gym we would have to tell some people they couldn't bring as many people as they wanted," said Klingensmith. "This is a day of celebration and joy for families, so we didn't want to have to do that."

Men on garbage truck hurt in collision

Two men from Warrenton and a man from Lincoln County had minor injuries May 20 after a vehicle collided with the side of a garbage truck.

Timothy F. Harris, 38, and Steven S. King, 44, both of Warrenton, were taken to Mercy Hospital Lincoln, according to a Missouri State Highway Patrol preliminary report. Roman T. Cole, 27, Moscow Mills, was also taken to the hospital.

The crash happened around 1:30 p.m. on Highway C, west of South Ethlyn

Road in Lincoln County, the highway patrol said.

King was driving a garbage truck with Harris as the passenger. The truck was driving eastbound on Highway C when it was struck on the side by a 2002 Oldsmobile Alero driven by Cole, which crossed the center line while traveling the opposite direction, according to the patrol.

King and Harris were wearing seat belts at the time of the crash. Cole was not wearing a seat belt, the patrol said.
