ON SATURDAY, MAY 4, local teens gathered together at the library to play Dungeons and Dragons. Under the leadership of Dungeon Master Joe Branson, participants were guided through an imaginary maze of suspense and intrigue. Eating cookies and drinking soda, kept the teens focused and ready for whatever challenges Mr. Branson threw at them. Another Dungeons and Dragons event will be held on June 29, 11:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
