Union Branch Set to Open on August 21

The library's new Union branch and administrative offices will open to the public on August 21. The library's space will increase from 7,000 sq. ft. in the old building to 17,200 sq. ft. at the new facility. The facility will have a dedicated teen area, adult lounge with fireplace and café, three outdoor patios with seating, drive-up book drop, 1,900 sq. ft. of public meeting space, three study rooms, and other amenities. The children's area will feature a giant touch screen tablet, LEGO® tables, magnet walls, and other activities. A self-check system will be installed at the branch in mid-September. The Union location is the library's eighth new facility to be completed in the three-county area in the past eighteen months. The $22 million building project, made possible by the library's first-ever voter-approved tax increase in 2014, expanded the library's overall square footage from 44,000 sq. ft. to 88,000 sq. ft.

A grand opening event will be held on Saturday, September 14 from 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM. The event will feature a bounce house, face painting, balloon artist, music, and free hot dogs, popcorn, chips, and soda. There will be a dedication ceremony at 11:30 AM featuring guest speakers Missouri Secretary of State Jay Ashcroft, Missouri State Librarian Robin Westphal, and Franklin County Presiding Commissioner Tim Brinker. Union Area Chamber of Commerce Director Amanda Day will also have a ribbon cutting.

The Union branch will be closed AUGUST 9-20 for the move to the new branch at 251 Union Plaza Drive. The new branch will open on August 21.

Franklin County Bicentennial Exhibit to Visit Branches

The library will be displaying the Franklin County Bicentennial Exhibit at its five Franklin County branches in late August and September. The Franklin County Bicentennial Committee had three, fifteen-panel exhibits created for display throughout the county in 2019. The panels chronicle many aspects of the county's 200-year history, everything from farming to Route 66, and include many images.

The library has also been having a program each month related to Franklin County history at its five branches throughout the county. All the programs, which will continue until December, have been enormously popular and produced high attendance.

Branches Launch Instagram Accounts

The library launched an Instagram account for each branch and its bookmobile in July. It will use the social media platform to publicize its services and programs, as well as post photographs from branch activities. The library has operated Facebook pages for each branch for the past few years. Many public libraries across the country use Facebook, Instagram, and other social media platforms to promote their services.

In mid-July, 1,875 copies of Station Eleven arrived at the library. The library will be giving away the books to the public beginning on September 3 as part of its NEA Big Read grant. The goal of the NEA Big Read is to get as many people as possible in a community to read and discuss the same book. The library and its partners selected Station

Eleven, an award-winning post-apocalyptic, science fiction novel by Emily St. John Mandel, as their book for the NEA Big Read. The book's intended audience is teenagers and adults.

On September 3, patrons can walk into any Scenic Regional Library branch or the Washington Public Library and pick up a free paperback copy of Station Eleven to keep. Each branch will receive 50 to 75 copies; the Washington Public Library will receive 110 copies. The books will be distributed on a "first come, first serve" basis while supplies last.

From the delivery, 865 copies will be given to eight area high schools which have agreed to incorporate the book into their senior-level high school English class curriculum this fall. The Friends of the Library groups agreed to reimburse the library for 570 of the copies. The Warrenton branch Friends of the Library agreed to purchase 100 copies for Warrenton High School; Owensville branch Friends of the Library, 90 copies for Owensville High School; Pacific branch Friends of the Library, 100 copies for Pacific High School; St. Clair branch Friends of the Library, 60 copies for St. Clair High School; and Union branch Friends of the Library, 220 copies for Union High School.

The Washington Public Library will provide books for St. Francis Borgia High School and Washington High School.

East Central College Library will also have 125 copies to distribute to their students. In addition, the East Central Literacy Council purchased 90 copies for East Central College's Adult Education & Literacy students.

All the NEA Big Read titles were purchased through the Neighborhood Reads bookstore in Washington, Missouri.

Programming related to the themes of the novel, as well as book discussion groups, will be held throughout the three-county area between September 24 and November 5. The author, Emily St. John Mandel, will be interviewed, answer questions, and sign books at East Central College on November 5. For more information, visit www.scenicregional.org/bigread.

Library to Begin Checking Out Binoculars

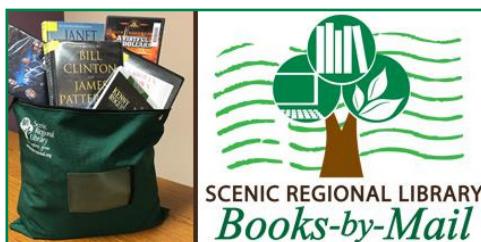

Beginning August 1, each Scenic Regional Library branch will offer a set of Vortex Crossfire 8x42 binoculars for check out. The binoculars were purchased through the St. Louis Astronomical Society and can be used for bird watching or night sky viewing. The binoculars will check out in a small, hard case and include a Night Sky guide, a Backyard Bird guide, and laminated instruction manual.

The library already checks out some other popular specialty items, including telescopes, fishing poles, and cake pans.

Patrons will be required to present their library card and an additional form of identification to check out a set of binoculars. The binoculars must be checked out on an adult card. Unlike most other library items, the binoculars will only have a 7-day checkout period and cannot be renewed. There is also a $5 per day overdue fine for the binoculars.

Books-By-Mail

Do you know someone who is home bound and unable to visit the library? Scenic Regional Library offers a completely free "books-by-mail" program. Home bound individuals who qualify can sign up to receive five items at a time through the library by mail, including books, audiobooks on CD, music on CD, and even DVDs. Visit: scenicregional.org/request-materials/booksbymail for more information and to sign up today!

"I have been getting the books since April, 2018. I am 93, live in Assisted Living and don't have much to do and I really enjoy reading. To this date you have sent me 101 books and whoever picks them out is doing a wonderful job. Thanks so much."

-Gladys Hauser

"I love this program. If not for Books-By-Mail I would have no way to get books. My life is so much richer because of Books-By-Mail."

Staff Spotlight: Ruth Technical Services Manager, Administration

At which location do you currently work? HQ (Headquarters in Union).

How long have you worked for Scenic? Seven years, but I've worked in libraries for almost 30 years.

What made you want to work in a library? My mother is a librarian so I practically grew up in libraries. Libraries have always been a second home for me.

What is your favorite part of the job? Figuring out better, more efficient, more effective ways of doing things.

What do you wish more people knew about the library? How much we have to offer. We aren't just books anymore. In addition to the usual books, DVDs, magazines, audiobooks, and music CDs, we have telescopes, fishing poles, cake pans, and now binoculars.

What are you most excited about with the upcoming move to the new building and why? The location. It is so much more accessible. We will be easier to find and easier for people to get in and out. We will also have more parking.

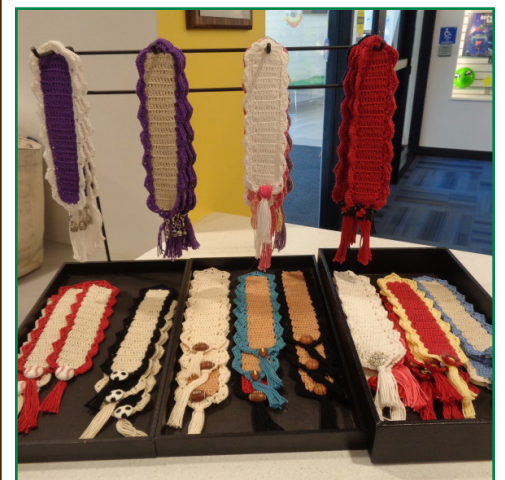

What are you currently reading? I just finished Choosing Civility by P.M. Forni.

What is your favorite book? Why? I don't have a favorite book. I read a lot of fiction, particularly mysteries but also enjoy history, and books on leadership and self-improvement.

Is there anything else you would like people to know about you, your job, or Scenic Regional Library? I see Technical Services as the guts of the library. Every book, DVD, cake pan, etc. comes through us to be labeled and added to the catalog before it can go out into the system. I've worked for public libraries of all sizes, but I've never worked for one that cares as much about its employees and patrons as Scenic does.

Pacific Friends Group Accepting Donations for Crocheted Bookmarks

The Pacific branch Friends of the Library are offering crocheted bookmarks in exchange for donations—while supplies last! Patron Frankie Brown crocheted several dozen of the beautiful bookmarks and donated them to the library to use as a fundraiser. All proceeds will go to the Pacific branch Friends group and Pacific branch.

The St. Clair branch had a great turn out during their monthly Book Club. They discussed "Bring Me Back" by B.A. Paris.

Eastern Missouri Dark Sky Observers taught Pacific patrons how to use the telescope and soon-to-be-circulated binoculars.
