

conductor William "Uncle Wilowner, is seeking a conditional structure. Missouriian Photo.

"We provided nursing care for 35 years," Schmidt said. "Management and staff will all be the same under the new owners."

The local care center was the dream of the late Joe Dailey, who wanted to have a nursing home in the community to care for elderly citizens.

Center was built.

On Dec. 26, 2005, Pacific Care Center opened an assisted living wing that included a 16-unit assisted living apartment complex to provide food and medicine for individuals who are otherwise independent. The center opened with a waiting list of eight.

Outbreak in County Growing

"The best be to see
we have vac-ple to stop case would seeking care
es."
cial end to said there 100 days, or

two incubation periods, with no new cases.

"This outbreak began in Southeast Missouri," Hittson said. "Right now it is still fairly small, but the state is concerned if it spreads to St. Louis County, it could quickly spread to St. Louis city and then Kansas City and we could have thousand of cases."

Hittson added there is no doubt in her mind there are additional cases in the county they have missed or that haven't been reported.

"The number of cases going up isn't necessarily a bad thing," she said. "It usually seems like we get one case then it leads to two or three more associated with that person. If more people are diagnosed, that's more people we can vaccinate and hopefully stop this."

Still Spreading

With 47 cases now confirmed and total vaccines administered nearing 1,500, the virus contin-
• See Hep A Page 2A

Story Time at the Library

Story Lady Sharon Kinman reads the book "Shine" to young patrons during Story Hour at the Pacific Regional Library Pacific branch Thursday, July 11. Missouriian Photo

n t 6
view

a special istrict and de the an-ll approve o combine.
Hall, 1228
are for the ll combine le," Baker le Masonic

SATURDAY

4B-5B
..... 7C
..... 4C
..... 6D
Mostly Sunny
High: 91°
Low: 69°

SUNDAY

Thunderstorms
High: 91°
Low: 69°

MONDAY

Mostly Cloudy
High: 84°
Low: 71°

TUESDAY

Partly Cloudy
High: 84°
Low: 72°

WEBSITE

Stay Connected With Breaking News:

emissourian.com

To Subscribe Call

8 56