appropriate activities for the number of students who are participating.

Breakfast and lunch will be served at care days. Students will have the same meal pay stat that they have during a regular school day.

Any Warren County School District student may attend care days.

Klinginsmith said he does not expect to see high school students at care day.

"A lot of them are working," functional, accommodating sensory needs and range of mobility needs, the surrounding area has also been improved. Shade covers have been added along with softer surface and mulch.

"This is now where it will be a multiple modality and multiple mobility playground," said Buck. There is an option for students who use wheelchairs to use ramp to access elements of the playground, so as not to be excluded.

West Elementary also updated its safety features.

"We ripped out some of the things at West that were dated and that didn't meet current playground industry standards," said Buck. "Our population is growing, but our playgrounds have not."

All told, the project cost expected to come in around $270,000.

tial improvements to Highway 47 between Dutzow and Washington, where the road is prone to flooding due to low elevation and proximity to the Missouri River. The other potential project is sidewalk upgrades being considered Warrenton, as well as along Highway J and the I-70 No. 1 Outer Road in Wright City.
