Developers also complained that the rules were an unnecessary burden to small developments where the property was zoned for the requested use and no

Developers that want to develop a site that is zoned for their use would face a more simple approval process.

Aldermen will be asked to complete the first reading of the proposed ordinance at the Aug. 6 board meeting.

Library Announces Programs in August

Scenic Regional Library's Pacific branch announces its adult program schedule for the month of August.

All adult programs are free, but registration is required. People may register by calling the branch at 636-257-2712 or going online to the events calendar at Scenicregional.org. Space is limited.

Mahjong is played every Monday at 10 am. The library currently has tables for both the Chinese and American version. New players are always welcome.

The book club will meet Tuesday, Aug. 13, at 6 p.m. This month's book is "Winter Sisters" by Robin Oliveira.

Patrons are invited to check out Sandy Feller's large collection of brooches. Sandy is trying to break the world's largest collection of brooches in an attempt to get into the Guinness Book of World Records.

Her collection will be available for viewing on Mondays from 2 to 8 p.m., Tuesdays from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Wednesdays from 9 to noon.

On Thursday, Aug 8, from 1 to 5 p.m., will be Take-A-Ticket. People can schedule a 30-minute appointment with Stacy Emerson, SRL's IT specialist. People can bring in their laptop, e-reader or cellphone and Emerson will help with any problems. She also can assist with Microsoft Office programs.

This is a very popular service that Scenic Regional offers and spaces are already limited. To schedule a time, call 636-257-2712.

On Thursday, Aug 22, at 6 p.m. will be Armchair Travel Route 66 with Joe Sonderman, who will talk about unusual and interesting sites along Route 66.

On Thursday, Aug. 29, at 6 p.m. will be Unsolved Mysteries by Laurie Osseck, who will talk about crimes, unexplained history and paranormal events.
