

MY DOG KNOWS THE BEST TRICK

A contestant shows off her pet's skills during best pet trick contest at the Woofstock festival Aug. 24. The annual event at Diekroeger Park in Wright City raises funds for a future Warren County animal shelter. Record photo/Derrick Forsyth.

LEADERS OF THE WEEK

These students were chosen as Leaders of the Week at Daniel I for modeling leadership qualities. Pictured in front, from left to Stockmann, Garrett Polston, Brad Clodfelter, Dredon Butler, Ale right, are Noel Arndt, Bradley Kelly, Keegan Lehmkuhl, Savannah I Shelby Kopp. Submitted photo.

Cemetery, musicians subjects of programs

The Scenic Regional Library in Warrenton is hosting the story of the Bellefontaine Cemetery and the authors of "St. Louis Sound" in September.

Tuesday, Sept. 10, one of the tour guides of the historic Bellefontaine Cemetery will discuss the famous people buried there, the history, the gardens, the landscape and more.

Tuesday, Sept. 17, Steve Pick and Amanda E. Doyle, authors of "St. Louis Sound," will discuss all the famous musicians and song writers that came out of St. Louis, including Chuck Berry, Miles Davis, Ike and Tina Turner and many more.

Those interested in attending the library programs can RSVP by calling 636-456-3321, visiting the library at 912 S. Highway 47, or going online to ScenicRegional.org.

Amptmann-Brune reunion planned

The annual Amptmann-Brune reunion is planned for Sunday, Sept. 15, at 1 p.m. The reunion will be held at Diekroeger Park, Wright City. Attendees should bring a dish to share. Those with questions may contact Mary Mosley at 573-301-7051 or by emailing midwest@ktis.net.

