Meet Author Jeanine Cummins

ADULT Welcome #1 New York Times bestselling author Jeanine Cummins to the library for an evening of conversation and insight into her writing and newest novel, Speak to Me of Home—this year's Community Read selection.

Born on a U.S. Naval Base in Rota, Spain, and raised in Gaithersburg, Maryland, Jeanine experienced a life-changing tragedy at sixteen when visiting family in St. Louis suffered the violent loss of her two cousins. Her brother was the only surviving victim of the attack. She later shares this story in her bestselling memoir, A Rip in Heaven.

Jeanine Cummins is best known for her #1 New York Times bestseller American Dirt, which has sold more than three and a half million copies worldwide.

Her newest novel, Speak to Me of Home is set in Puerto Rico and offers a moving, multigenerational exploration of marriage, family, and identity. At its heart, it's a story of mothers and daughters that asks: How can three women who share so much have such different ideas of where they come from and who they are? And can they find their way back to one another?

Jeanine lives in New York with her husband, their two daughters, and their dogs, but she also has deep ties to St. Louis, which have influenced both her life and the fictional worlds she creates. Learn more at jeaninecummins.com.
