Labadie News

The Labadie W.P.F.A. Club met on Wednesday of last week at the home of Mrs. Lester Horn with all members present but two. Mrs. Emma Duebbert, a charter member of the club who now lives at Marshallsville was present. One visitor, Mrs. Dena Mahart of Union was also present. The J.F.A. leaders and board members gave their report. After the business meeting secret pals were revealed and a gift exchange was enjoyed.

Mrs. Robert Fennessey was program leader and gave a program on “Rock Hill Cemetery.”

A luncheon of ice cream, cake and coffee was enjoyed by all. The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Emma Duebbert in Marshallsville.

Our community extends its sympathy to the Bob Suter family in the recent death of Mrs. Suter’s mother.

Mrs. Theodore Leuthauser of Valley Park and Mrs. Robert Fennessey spent Thursday of last week with their sister, Mrs. Mike Fennessey. The occasion was her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hargreaves of Manchester visited his sister, Mrs. Sarah Winistoetter, one day last week.

Mrs. Bill Caldwell has returned to her home after being a patient in St. Francis Hospital several days this past week.

Mr. Fred Casey came home on Sunday after having spent the past three months in California with Mr. and Mrs. Pete Kobaluk and sons.

The Labadie J.F.A. Club met at the R.S. school on Friday, March 23, to make up the January meeting which was postponed due to bad weather and icy road conditions. President Barbara Warnebold called the meeting to order. Roll call was answered by 23 members. Guests present were: Mrs. Alice Sands, Mrs. Stahlman, Derinda and Richard Barnett. Parents present were: Mrs. Barbara Brinkman and three leaders.

The L. J. Winistoetter family of Gildeshaus visited the Bob Fennesseys one evening last week.

The Award Supper given by Labadie Planned Progress council on Saturday night was quite a success. About 100 were present and a delicious meal was enjoyed by all. A nice program followed with local talent. Everyone enjoyed Tom Risch, both for his talk and pictures, and we are very thankful to him. Darryl Lafferty won the attendance price. We had guests from Union Electric, our county court, our representative of Purina Farm.

Mrs. Ronald Harrison and Karl Schink, two staff members at Scenic Regional Library headquarters in Union check films and film strips at the Union Library. Part of Mrs. Harrison’s duties are to keep film strips filed and accounted for. Schink runs the projector for clubs who use films from Scenic Regional Library. He also drives the bookmobile.

(Neppew of Berryys killed in Navy bomber crash

Mrs. Ronald Harrison and Karl Schink, two staff members at Scenic Regional Library headquarters in Union check films and film strips at the Union Library. Part of Mrs. Harrison’s duties are to keep film strips filed and accounted for. Schink runs the projector for clubs who use films from Scenic Regional Library. He also drives the bookmobile.

(Princln l Photograph)

Nephew of Berryys killed in Navy bomber crash

Funeral services were held in Fair Oaks, Calif., April 5, for Lieutenant James G. Kendrick, a Navy Air Pilot, who was killed in a Navy Patrol Bomber crashed near Longview, Washington, March 21. Because of deep snow and rugged mountain terrain in the area of the crash, the bodies of the 10 reservists aboard the plane were not recovered until late Saturday.

Lt. Kendrick was 29 years old, married and the father of two small children. He was a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Barro of Union and has visited his uncle and aunt here a number of times.

Also a lot of familiar faces and some new ones.

Labadie won a second place award and check for same was awarded Saturday night.

There will be a Planned Progress meeting on Thursday, April 12, 7:30 p.m., at the fire house. Mrs. Lawrence Sands will be the hostess.

The Labadie Home Makers Extension Club meeting was postponed last week.

Booklists are prepared for distribution to groups and individuals with special reading interests as a service of your Scenic Regional Library.

Story hour planned at Warrenton

A special art show by Warrenton people will mark the opening of National Library Week. The art show and open house is scheduled for Sunday, April 8, from 1 to 5 p.m.

The Warrenton Jaycees, Jayceettes and P.T.A. will be in charge of arrangements and refreshments.

A story hour for the youngest has been scheduled. Warrenton High School girls will conduct the story hours Saturday, April 14. Hours for the story telling will be 9:30-10:30 a.m.

Attend Rolla conference

W. T. Curtright, superintendent of schools, Howard Heidbrink, principal of the high school and Eugene Glaser, principal of the elementary school attended the South-Central Administrators Association conference at Rolla Thursday evening.

D. D. McKenzie of Pacific was elected president, W. T. Curtright, vice-president, and Dr. Donald D. Wynn of Owensville was elected secretary-treasurer of the association.

UHS Style Show

“Around the World in the Night” is the theme of the annual Style Show, given by the Union School Home Economics Department.

The event will be held at Union High School at Tuesday evening, April 7, 3:30 p.m.

The Style Show is under the supervision of the home economics teacher, Mrs. Louis Lorent, and the student teacher, Miss Mildred Bruns.

Everyone is invited to attend.

Revival services this week

Rev. Wallace Carrier ofburg, Ky., is leading revival services at the First Baptist Church each night this week, Thursday, at 7:30 p.m.

This revival is in connection with simultaneous revivals held by the Baptist church this time.