

Library staff well qualified

The three professional librarians at Scenic Regional Library hold state library offices, or serve on state library committees.

Miss Lucy Lomax, chief librarian, received a graduate degree in library science from Louisiana State University and also holds a masters degree from the University of Texas.

She is divisional chairman of public libraries for the Missouri Library Association.

Miss Gertrude Zimmer holds a masters degree from Peabody in English. She is serving on the certification committee for the state library association. This committee checks the qualifications of persons who apply for library certificates.

Miss Martha Maxwell, the newest member of the Scenic Regional Library staff, has a masters degree in library science from Peabody. She is chairman of the Missouri Library Association Recruiting Committee, which is in charge of selecting interns for library work during the summer months.
