

A COMPLETE SET of the Revised Statutes of Missouri was presented to the Owensville Scenic Regional Library branch last week by Rep. C. M. Bassman, right. Mrs. Henry Buchholz, librarian, accepted the books, presented by Rep. Bassman on behalf of Secretary of State James C. Kirkpatrick. Missouri law prescribes that every public library should have a complete set of the statutes, and Bassman called the matter to Kirkpatrick's attention.—Republican Photo.