Welcome!

Scenic Regional Library offers eBooks and eAudiobooks through Overdrive, a digital collection company that partners with libraries. Overdrive has introduced an app, called Libby, and the purpose for this help guide is to provide you with the information you need to use it.

What is Libby?

Libby is an app designed by Overdrive and is used to browse and borrow Overdrive titles from Scenic Regional Library. The app is available for Apple devices (iOS 9.0 or newer), and Android devices (4.4 or newer).

Please note that using the Libby app to browse and borrow Libby titles is optional. If you would rather continue using the Overdrive app, you most certainly can.

Libby's Offerings to Scenic Regional Library Patrons

Since Libby is an Overdrive app, patrons get the same offerings through Libby as they would through Overdrive. Any SRL patrons who have library accounts in good standing can access Libby. Patrons are allowed to borrow seven titles at once. Patrons can also place seven titles on hold at one time. Once borrowed, patrons can keep titles for 14 days.

Downloading the Libby App to Your Mobile Device

If you are using an Apple device (iPad or iPhone), go the App Store and search for Libby by Overdrive. Once you find it, tap “Get” or the button that looks like a cloud with a down arrow in it.

If you are using an Android device (Samsung, Tracfone, etc.), go to the Google Play Store and search for Libby by Overdrive. Once you find it, tap “Install.”
Logging into the Libby App

Follow these steps to log into the Libby App.

1. Tap on the Libby App icon.

2. Tap “Yes.”

3. Tap “I’ll Search For a Library.”

3. Find the title you want and tap “Borrow.”

4. Tap “Borrow” to confirm.
Borrowing Titles Using the Search Feature, continued

5. Tap on “Open Book,” “Keep Browsing,” or “Go To Shelf.”

Notes

- If the title you want is not available, tap “Place Hold” to put the title on hold.
- To see a description of a title, tap on the book cover.
- Tap “Tag” to label the book as one you like (thumbs up), dislike (thumbs down), or want to read (stack of three books).
- Audiobooks are indicated by earbuds under the book cover. If you do not see earbuds, the title is an eBook.
- You can filter the results you see by using the “Preferences” and “Refine” options.
Borrowing Titles Using the Explore Feature

Follow these steps to borrow a title from the collection using the explore feature.

1. Tap “Explore.”

2. Tap on any of the Explore options. Note that some options on this page take you to a list of titles immediately and other options will prompt you to choose more filters before giving you titles from which to choose.

5. Tap “Borrow” to confirm.

Notes

• If the title you want is not available, tap “Place Hold” to put the title on hold.

• Tap “Tag” to label the book as one you like (thumbs up), dislike (thumbs down), or want to read (stack of three books).

• Audiobooks are indicated by earbuds under the book cover. If you do not see earbuds, the title is an eBook.

• You can filter the results you see by using the “Preferences” option.

• Within lists of titles, there is a three-dot button on the right side of each listing. If the button is white, the title is available. If the button is grey, you will need to place a hold on that title. Tapping this button gives you a list of options for that title.
Reading an eBook

Follow these steps to open and read your eBook.

1. Tap “Shelf.”

2. Find the title you want to read and tap “Open Book” or “Open in Libby.” Note that if this is the first time you are reading an eBook in Libby, it will ask you to choose to read with Libby or Kindle. Since you are using the Libby app on your device, choosing to read in Libby is the most direct way to read your eBook.

Now he pattered around, picking up wine glasses and plates holding remnants of this week's treat. The members of the group took turns making a dish mentioned in the book under discussion. This week the town clerk had made a couple of killer pizzas for us to share, since Sherry Harris's I Know What You Bid Last Summer featured an Italian restaurant where Sarah Winston, the garage-sale-maven protagonist, often ate.

I stood to help Derrick but he waved me away. "I'll do it, sis," he said in a gruff tone. He was the private lighthouse's caretaker and I knew he liked to keep the place tidy, a trait we shared.

The group, ten strong tonight, exchanged farewells and filed down the circular staircase.

"What are we reading for next week?" I asked.
"Cracked to Death, remember?" Gin replied.
"That's right." It was the third book in Cheryl Hollon's Webb's Glass Shop Mysteries. The group had decided to begin this season with a book set in June—thus starting with last week's I know What You Bid Last Summer—and then move ahead a month every week, so we'd go through an entire year by the end of August. Cracked was described as taking place during the dog days of summer. Our group, which read exclusively cozy mysteries, had contacted the author to make sure that meant July. She'd assured us it did.
