

id comment to us
Submitted Photo.

charged talking

Sean Hickman
er at least four times, ording to the probe cause statement for first-degree stalking rge filed against him
. 21. His bond has n set at $10,000.

"This project includes the new intersection of Don Avenue with Old Pottery Road and entrance onto Pottery Road," City Engineer Charles Stankovic wrote in a letter outlining the work, which was included in Monday's Washington City Council agenda packet.

Stankovic added that the rest of Don Avenue will be extended by the of $191,878.98. Underinstall is also the developer behind much of the new residential and commercial development off of High Street and south of Highway 100.

"Approving this project will cost $219,732.50. The current Transportation Sales Tax budget for this fiscal year has $215,000.00. Approv-

still have access to their homes during construction.

"The two houses that are to the south will still have access off their existing driveway there to Pottery Road and the other three will have some sort of temporary road put in so that they have access the whole time," Stankovic said.
"That's part of the contract."

"I was wondering how that was going to work out, but that's down the road," said Patke.

The council unanimously approved the contract Monday. "The project has 60 calendar days allotted for construction with an anticipated construction start date as soon as possible," Stankovic wrote in his letter to the council.

St. Clair library to host first trunk or treat

By Christopher Parker
parker@emissourian.com

A palooza of pumpkins and pages is coming to St. Clair's Scenic Regional Library branch on Wednesday for the first-ever Hallows Eve Trick 'r Treat.

Library officials will transform the building into a Halloween haven from 5-8 p.m. on Oct.
30. Booths set up throughout the library will serve treats, organize games, provide photo ops and more. Children's programmer Mindy Myers said she loves all things Halloween, and she started planning as soon as the idea came to her last year.

"Transforming the library into a safe, fun, spooky space for trick or treating will have a pretty great turn out, I think," she said. "We are so excited to bring this to the community this year!" Alesia Cullen, the branch manager, said she hopes St. Clair families bring their coolest costumes to the celebration.

"People often put either a lot of time or money into a costume, so it's nice to be able to wear it more than once," she said.

Attendees are encouraged to register online at https://tinyurl.com/mpfw57h4.

OAK
pizza®
ROOM &

14TH ANNUAL

WEEKEND COSTUME TEST

urian edia group

otos 10/12-10/31 on n.com/spooky

ded to winners in children, pet categories.

Open to
CHILDREN, ADULTS &
PETS
of all ages!

Show us your scariest, most creative, funniest costumes of years past ...
The choice is yours!

Voting runs Oct. 21 – Nov. 6

ENTER
NOW

You could win great prizes from these sponsors:

SMOKIN' OAK
wood-fired pizza®
& TAPROOM