

New Library

Franklin County Scenic Regional Library Children's Librarian Christy Schink helped open the new St. Clair location on Saturday by reading to youngsters during several story hours throughout the day. The library moved from its old spot on South Main Street to its bigger and more accommodating facility at 515 E. Springfield Road and opened its doors to patrons during Saturday's open house. For more pictures, turn to Page 4S.

Missourian Photos/Keith E. Domke

Library Open House

Franklin County Scenic Regional Library Branch Coordinator Chris Brown, left, looks at the name of a door prize drawing winner during Saturday's open house that also served as the first day of the local library being in its new building at 515 E. Springfield Road. At right is new library system Director Vivienne Beckett.

St. Clair Scenic Regional Library Librarian Karen Fogelbach helps 10-year-old Madelyn Jones find a book during Saturday's open house that showcased the library's new facility at 515 E. Springfield Road.

Five-year-old Dylan Pelster relaxes on one of the lounge chairs during Saturday's St. Clair Scenic Regional Library open house.

Missourian Photos.