The New Haven VFW Post 6890 last week donated a book commemorating the 100th anniversary of the VFW to the New Haven High School Library and the New Haven Scenic Regional Library. Above, Murray Wright (left) of the VFW presents the book to librarian Renee Laune and school district superintendent Mike Bumgarner. Below, Wright is pictured with New Haven librarian Judy Brock. The hardback book details the history of the VFW, which was founded in 1899.
