to continue to do great things here in New Haven.

This Renaissance Man is setting a pace with 927 garlic seeds.
and planted 125 seeds a couple of years ago. This past year he expanded the garlic production and planted 125 seeds a couple of years ago. This past year he expanded the garlic production
and planted 125 seeds a couple of years ago. This past year he expanded the garlic production and planted 125 seeds a couple of years ago. This past year he expanded the garlic production

Nathan has also served as a New Haven Alderman for nine years. In keeping with tying in marble, most of Missouri's State Parks, and visited their departments in Audubon and Kansas City. The park

Nathan then retired from Union. You can buy his garlic and since then he and Barbara have traveled and camped in Indiana, Missouri, and Texas. He's been interested in gardening and growing garlic.

He got his job and moved up to Assistant Principal and then Principal and then Superintendent there for ten years. He and Barbara had moved back to New Haven after being in Laconell and Nathan commutes into Laconell everyday for Nathan's family moved to New Haven when he was four-years-old. He is one of seven kids and his father remains infatuated by the pursuit of knowledge.

Nathan Bailey is the guy you would want on your team if you were playing any kind of game that involves a

Photo and Story by Tony Carosella
FCA CONTRIBUTES TO the Little Free Food Pantry at NH Library.

TWO VISITING DIG-