Rose retires from local Walmart

Owensville Walmart Store Manager Glenn Ely (above, left) presents retiring employee, Dianna Rose, with a 30-year framed certificate and flower arrangement celebrating her tenure with the company upon her retirement in May. Rose began her 30-plus-year career with Walmart in February 1989 in Lebanon, Ind., working in the fabric department. During her career, she worked in nearly every department of the store from sales associate to department manager, where she spent over 20 years. She was loved by her coworkers and customers who would ask for her by name and continue to ask, "Where is Dianna?"

Engagement

Taylor-Otto make wedding

Kevin and Cari Brown of Belle and Owensville wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Taylor, to Derek Michael Otto, son of Mike and Mary Otto.
