

25 Years Ago
From The Record
files

County Library District Sets Tax Levy of 7 Cents

A tax levy of 7 cents has been adopted for the Warren County Library District for the current budget year. The 7 cent levy, which was approved after a public hearing on August 20, will be collected on each $100 of assessed valuation.

Revenue from the tax levy is expected to be approximately $151,024.

The Warren County Library District is part of the Scenic Regional Library system and serves all of Warren County. It operates a library in Warrenton and other areas are served by the bookmobile. Through a cooperative agreement with the Wright City School District is also provides a collection of books for the Wright City School/Community Library.

In addition to the Warren County Library District, Scenic Regional Library includes the Franklin and Gasconade County Library Districts. Other libraries in the system are located in New Haven, Pacific, St. Clair, Union, Hermann and Owensville.

The total budget for the regional system is $874,872. Of that amount $789,610 will be received in revenues generated by the tax levies in the three county districts.

The tax levy for the