D, and a two-building apartment complex to the rear of the Temco facility. More than 500 acres of surrounding land owned by Emmaus, mostly undeveloped, has been split into eight more tracts and listed for non-auction sale.

The auction and property sales are being managed by Trophy Properties and Auction.

Trophy Properties agent Eric Merchant said he believes the historical buildings of the main to be a destination with lodging for a wedding venue, winery, micro-distillery or craft brewery, or some combination of those," Merchant explained. Meanwhile, the plots with houses and apartments represent an investment opportunity for sale, lodging or rental homes.

Merchant is cautioning buyers to be prepared for additional expenses to bring the properties up to date.

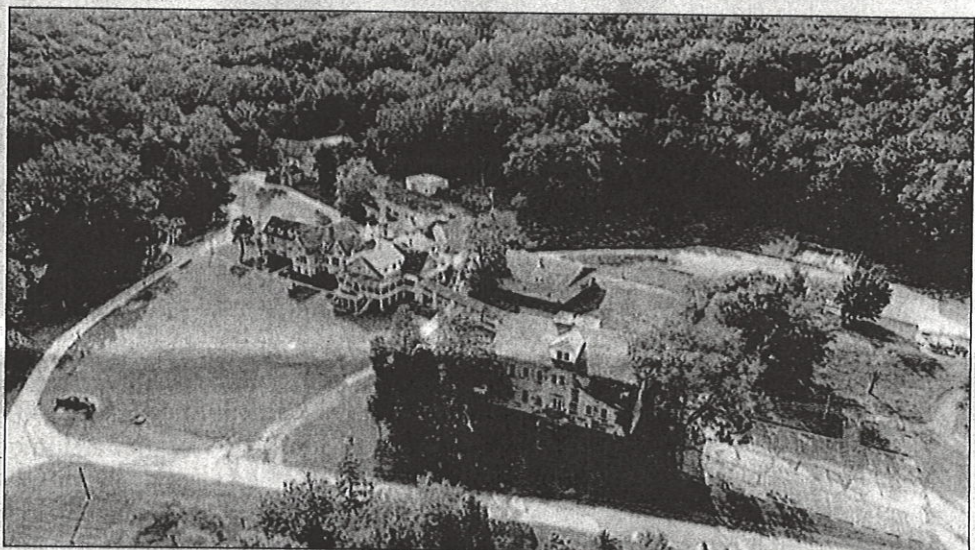

"They're going to have to do a fair amount of Merchant commented.

The undeveloped parcels that are up for sale without being auctioned, which range in size from 60 to 95 acres, could become anything from a real estate investment to a recreational hunting ground, Merchant added.

Bidding is currently open for the three tracts up for auction. The bidding ends Oct. 29.
