

one, right, and 2-year-old Taylor Zuhone make Treat at Diekroeger Park on Halloween, meeting Adam Rollins photo.

Voehsen with grandchildren Steele Paul, left, and another child for Treat along with family members at Diekroeger Park on Rollins photo.

Shot of the Week

Photo submitted by Maggie Hase, Marthasville

The Warren County Record's Shot of the Week Contest will continue to highlight Warren County photographers in 2019. Each week, entries will be published in The Record featuring scenes from Warren County. The weekly winner will be published in full color. The monthly categories for 2019 are:

- November — Things you're thankful for
- December — Holiday lights and decorations.

All entries may be brought to the office at 103 E. Booneslick in Warrenton, emailed to recordclass@warrencountyrecord.com, or mailed to 103 E. Booneslick, Warrenton, MO 63383. Photos will only be returned if a self-addressed, stamped envelope is included.

Warrenton High School to present 'The Sound Of Music'

Warrenton High School to present "The Sound of Music" High School's presentation of Rodgers and Hammerstein's "The Sound of Music" will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 14-16, at 7 p.m. at the High School Commons.

Tickets are $6 for students and $8 for adults. "The Sound of Music" is being presented through special arrangement with R&H Theatrical.

Author to speak at Warrenton library November 26

Author Cameron Collins will be at the Scenic Regional Library, Warrenton, Tuesday, Nov. 26, at 7 p.m. The book "Scenes of St.

Louis, Historic Wonder" is a fascinating pictorial of quirky, provocative, awe-inspiring, and just plain bizarre scenes. The imagines in this singular collection depict one-of-a-kind moments that we'll never see again. People may register online, sign up at the library or call 636-456-3321.