Join Turning Point for an evening of food, drinks, auctions, raffle prizes, dancing and fun at Boots 'n Bling, 6 to 10 p.m., Friday, April 17, at the Aspen Center at Innsbrook, 596 Aspen Way Drive, Innsbrook.

Proceeds benefit Turning Point Advocacy Services, a nonprofit organization that provides support to victims of domestic and sexual violence. The organization is mostly funded by state and federal grants and with assistance from the United Way of St. Louis. It relies on private donations, like those raised at Boots 'n Bling, to fill budget gaps and keep services available to individuals and families who need help.

Auctioneer Dusty

Thornhill returns this year to lead the live auction in humorous form.

The featured live auction item is a one week stay at "Eagle's Nest," a dreamy, luxury mountain retreat in Big Fork, Mont. Learn more about the property at vrbo.com, property No. 694072.

Other live auction items include a sunset dinner at Montelle Winery with an overnight stay in Augusta, and an after-hours wine tasting for 10 at Augusta Winery.

The evening will also feature a silent auction, wine pull and raffle prizes.

Tables are $600 for 8, or $75 per seat for single ticket buyers. Each guest receives dinner, dessert and two drink tickets.

A limited number of VIP tables are available for $750. VIP table guests receive reserved parking, a premium table location with a dedicated cocktail server and are the first in line at the buffet.

RSVP by April 4 at <http://www.turningpointdvs.com/home/events>, at office@turningpointdvs.com or call 636-456-1186. Guests who bring items from Turning Point's wish list will receive raffle tickets for a chance to win prizes. The wish list is posted at <http://www.turningpointdvs.com/home/events>.

Select auction items including excursions and experiences are still being sought. Sponsorship opportunities may be available. To learn more, call 636-456-1186.
