out of the year opened the question of whether non-salary staff should be paid for the lost days.

Board members agreed unanimously with Buck's proposal, but ruled that support staff should be staff for days they don't work, it might have reduced the budget by roughly $15,000.

Herman Wine Trail event returns April 4

This spring, wine enthusiasts visiting Hermann will once again have the opportunity to meet the farmers behind their food and wine. Celebrating the best of what Missouri has to offer, tickets are now available for the third annual The Farmers' Table Wine Trail event, hosted by Missouri CommonGround and the Hermann Wine Trail.

Attendees will have the opportunity to ask questions and celebrate Missouri agriculture as they taste their way through seven delectable wine and food pairings. In addition to award-winning wine, The Farmers' Table Wine Trail will showcase corn, beef, pork, chicken, apples, dairy, and rice — all foods representing the state's vibrant agricultural landscape.

The Farmers' Table Wine Trail runs from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturday, April 4, with tasting experiences at seven Hermann Wine Trail locations: Adam Puchta Winery, Bias Winery, Dierberg Star Lane Tasting Room, Hermannhof Winery, OakGlenn Winery, Röbller Vineyard, and Stone Hill Winery.

Tickets for the event are $30 and include wine and food pairings, a souvenir wine glass, and the chance to win a drawing for a Missouri gift basket and one night's stay in Hermann. Tickets must be purchased in advance and are available online or by calling the Hermann Welcome Center at 800-932-8687.

This event is made possible through a partnership between Missouri CommonGround, the Hermann Wine Trail, and support from the Missouri Wine & Grape Board. Missouri CommonGround is a group of volunteer farm women passionate about agriculture and sharing their experiences raising food.
